Safety

- Anticipate Safety Situations

- Preventive Officiating –

- Talk to players throughout the game.
 - Example – a defensive player is checking an opponent's arm for a possible slash. Tell player to lay off the arm and play the crosse.
 - Example – unless the defensive player knocks down his opponent, tell him to stop pushing.
 - If a player is running at a defenseless opponent warn him not to make contact.
 - If he does not heed the warning, throw the flag, and then look at the severity of the hit. If it is serious then award a more than 1-minute penalty.

Multiple Minutes

- Multiple Minutes

- Know the descriptions of all personal fouls.
- Penalty time for all personal fouls can be from 1-3 minutes.
- More than 1-minute is considered excessive.
- Occur when:
 - Body checks or Stick checks are done excessively.

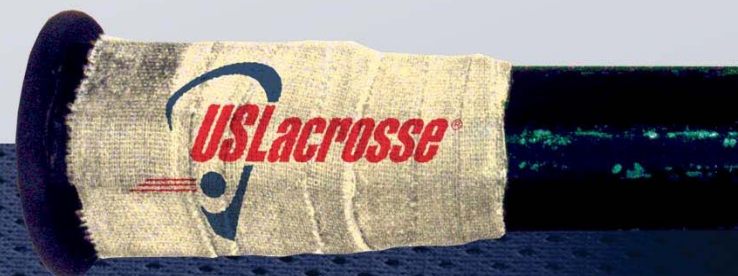

Multiple Minutes

- Do not confuse releasable personal fouls and non-releasable fouls.
 - Even though a personal foul (slash, cross check, trip, etc.) is more than 1-min. it is still releasable upon the scoring of a goal.
 - Non-releasable penalties such as (illegal crosse, use of threatening, profane language, obscene gestures, etc.) are full time serving even if given multiple minutes.

Ejection Foul

- Ejection Foul

- Deliberately striking or attempting to strike an opponent.
- Leaving the bench area during an altercation on the field.
- Use of tobacco or smokeless tobacco.

Penalty for Ejection Foul

- There is a 3-minute, non-releasable penalty.
- Followed by ejection for the remainder of the game.
 - An ejected coach shall be removed from the game.
 - An ejected player, substitute, or non-playing member shall:
 - Be removed from the premises if there is authorized school personnel present to supervise the ejected player.
 - If no one is available the student shall be confined to the bench area.

Penalty for Ejection Foul

- Note: Any unsportsmanlike conduct penalty or ejection foul on either a coach or player must be submitted to the assigning authority and that authority should notify the appropriate school.

Fouling Out

- Fouling Out

- Any player who accumulates 5 minutes of personal fouls shall be disqualified from the game.
 - Example: Player A is given a 2-minute personal foul. Later in the game he is given a 3-minute non-releasable penalty for an illegal stick.
- A player who has fouled out of the game is not to be considered ejected.
- The player can participate in his team's next game.
